

Parshat Beshalach: The Story of Nachshon

Contributed by BimBam

Source: G-dcast

<https://www.youtube.com/embed/QKp6y2Lpgxg>

Get Your Feet Wet- it's the Exodus! The Israelites are finally free, struggling to leave Egypt behind, but now they find themselves trapped not able to cross the sea. This is the story of what happens next. Rabbi Jonah Pesner breaks down the midrash and introduces us to Nachshon, a leader that walks right into the water with faith.

Thanks to all of our generous funders that contributed to the G-dcast Parashat haShavua (פַּרְשַׁת הַשְּׁבוּעָה or "weekly Torah portion") animated series. Specific thanks to The Stein Family, The Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion (HUC-JIR) and The Natan Fund for contributing to this particular parsha. Additional thanks to each of the writers, narrators, producers, educators, and sound engineers that contributed to this episode of Beshalah (בְּשַׁלַּח "when [he] let go") including Barbara Barza, Lisa Finkelstein, Nick Fox-Gieg, Felicia Herman, Sarah Lefton, Russel Neiss, Rabbi Jonah Pesner, Matthue Roth, Oren Stevens, Jeremy Shuback and Jeanne Stern.